Professional Disclosure Statement

Philosophy and Approach: I believe clients have the innate ability to heal and by strengthening their bond, couples can have more positive, productive and satisfying relationships. I specialize in Emotionally Focused Couples Therapy and also EMDR for the treatment of trauma.

Formal Education and Training: I hold a Masters Degree in Psychology from Regis University in Denver.

As a Licensee of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I abide by its Code of Ethics. To maintain my license I am required to participate in continuing education, taking classes dealing with subjects relevant to my profession.

Fees: My fee is $125.00 per hour and I accept most major insurance behavioral health coverage.

As a client of an Oregon licensee, you have the following rights:

- To expect that a licensee has met the qualifications of training and experience required by state law
- To examine public records maintained by the Board to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee
- To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics (Oregon Administrative Rules 833-100)
- To report complaints to the Board
- To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services
- To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule or law, with the following exceptions: Providing and reporting information regarding suspected child abuse; imminent danger to you or others; information required in court proceedings or by your insurance company, or other relevant agencies and concerning licensee case consultation or supervision; and defending claims brought by you against me.
- To be free from discrimination because of age, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, national origin, gender, race, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, or socioeconomic status.
